

Tschudi Ship Management AS represents more than 130 years of Norwegian shipping experience.

The main business areas of Tschudi Group enterprises are shipping, offering full transport solutions and ship management and crewing services.

Tschudi Ship Management AS, which is located in Tallinn, offers ships' technical, safety and quality and crew management services

In relation to expanding our activities we are looking for:

TECHNICAL SUPERINTENDENT

whose main responsibilities are:

- Planning and conducting ships technical maintenance
- Planning and supervision of dry-docking, major repairs and ship conversions
- Preparation, supervision and reporting of ships yearly budget, in co-operation with shipboard management
- Communication with classification societies
- Coordination of ships crews and suppliers
- Communication with ship owners and their representatives
- Active participation in the SHE-Q culture within the Company

We assume:

- Previous experience on board as Chief Engineer or Second Engineer
- Fluent English (both written and verbal), Estonian and Russian in communication level
- Good communication skills, conscientiousness, ability to organize
- Responsible and teamwork oriented
- Readiness for frequent business trips

We Offer:

- Competitive remuneration and company benefits
- Interesting job in professional and dedicated team
- International work environment
- Professional training program with development

For further information please see our homepage: www.tschudishipmanagement.com.

Please send your CV and motivation letter along with desired salary by e-mail cv@tschudishipmanagement.com or address Sadama 4, 10111 Tallinn or fax 6409 748. Additional information : 6409 781.